A yearbook is a pictorial record of a year of Glee Club and chorus rehearsals, hockey and basketball games, plays and parties, serious work and steady endeavor. But for each class the year holds a particular significance. To the freshmen the year is one of change, adjustment to the new teachers and the new ways of the Upper School. To the sophomores it is a year of transition, of being young enough to be mischievous, yet old enough to be responsible. To the juniors it is a year of increased responsibility, of the realization of the nearness of senior year. To the seniors it is a year of culmination; they are ready to go into college, into the future.

Dear Gail,
You're a swell kid – I'm sure you'll do well in everything next yr. – I appreciate your help in regard to the library books – I'm afraid it wasn't a very exciting job, but it was a big help to Miss Clark. Appreciate. KIP write you can't to hate to leave, but I'm also looking forward to college. Pray for Sue tomorrow at 5:00

TO KENT PLACE

You've guided us so far, and now
That we must leave you and go on,
As leaves when Autumns come,
We fall away from your security
To unfamiliar ground, and yet
We cannot lose what has been gathered here.
Such wealth of knowledge is a lasting thing
And we shall not forget.

You send us not alone, but with
A purpose for our life
That is a basis for
All life itself, and which will help us toward
Our goal, with something strong and deep
To guide us. We shall conquer all that bars
The way, and why? Because of what you've taught
No, we cannot forget.

Pat Tyner

For everything there is a time,
And for every time a purpose.
We've known a time to play,
A time to work,
A time to think,
A time to act.
And knowing this, we now have reached
The time to go.
You've imbued us with
The meaning of time.
We've known some joy,
We've known some sorrow,
But more than that we know of tomorrow
What you have taught us.

CLASS SONG

Music—"You'll Never Walk Alone"

Words—Beejay Hodges

As we walk toward our goal,
We extol Kent Place
For all of her help in the past.
As we leave, our thoughts
Turn to thee with thanks
Now that we've reached the summit at last.
We march on in hope,
We march on in faith,
While thy spirit lights our way.
If we march, march on
With thee at our side,
We will never go astray.
We'll never go astray.

We regret our misdeeds
As we say goodbye
To friends and our memories so dear.
We will ne'er forget
All you've done for us,
And we cherish the time we've spent here.
We walk on in hope,
We walk on in faith,
Though our dreams be tossed and blown.
If we walk, walk on
With thee in our hearts
We will never walk alone.
We'll never walk alone.

CLASS OF 1955

The officers were, for the fall term: Robin Miesem, president; Margaretta Jones, vice-president; Betsy Palmer, secretary; Sue Bittner, treasurer; Doreen Crawford, council member; Sally Miller and Mary Baton, appointed council members. For the spring term, they were: Ann Tilson, president; June Minder, vice-president, Mallory Hicks, secretary; Mary Baton, treasurer; Judy Hover, council member; and Betty Slack, appointed council member.

At the opening of school, the old girls welcomed the new freshmen with a party and later in the fall gave a picnic for the juniors. For the middle school fair in December the freshmen ran the tearoom in Mabie House. In the spring, their annual Tea Dance was held. The freshmen take part in Boots and Saddles and the Junior Dramatic Club.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Yoyo Muhlethaler was president of the Athletic Association; Pat Black, secretary; Dana Matthaei, Green team captain; and Beverly Welsh, Gold team captain. The other members of the A.A. Board were: the freshman captains, Nona Ringler, Green and Barbara Hilyard, Gold; the sophomore captains, Susan Bohmer, Green and Caroline Seager, Gold; the junior captains, Nancy Agarino, Green and Carol Skellett, Gold. For the second semester the captains were freshmen—Betty King, Green, and Betsy Cumming, Gold; sophomores—Ann Moser, Green, and Ginny Teller, Gold; juniors, Barbara McCabe, Green, and Jean Webb, Gold.

March 26 at the gym meet the Green and Gold teams competed in songs, tumbling, tap dancing, volleyball, gymnastics, and a basketball game. It was won by the Golds with a score of 67-71.

DWIGHT HOCKEY GAMES

For the second time in succession, both of Kent Place's teams emerged victorious from the annual hockey games with Dwight. The final scores of the games, played Friday, November 6, in Englewood, were: varsity, 3-2; second team, 3-0. Because of rain, these were the only games the varsity played this season.

Within the first five minutes of the varsity game, Ginny Teller scored a goal for Kent Place. Then Dwight's forward line passed our defense and scored two quick goals. In the second half, the teams fought evenly until the Kent Place forward line broke through and Kate Burke scored. With only a short time left to play, Kent Place, determined to win, forced the ball into the goal to make the score 3-2.

Kent Place had the upper hand throughout the second team game. With long passes they succeeded in getting the ball towards the goal early in the game. Mary Cumming, playing left wing, shot a long pass across the forward line into the cage. Later, Marguerite Meszar, center forward, shot two more goals for Kent Place. The final score was 3-0 in favor of Kent Place.

KIMBERLEY BASKETBALL GAMES

Kent Place varsity and second teams played Kimberley in the Phraner gymnasium on January 25. Both games were fast and exciting. The varsity game ended in a tie, 23-23; the second team game was won by Kent Place with the score of 32-25. Kimberley's varsity started out by scoring three baskets in succession. From then on the scoring went back and forth. Nevertheless, Kimberley maintained its lead, which Kent Place could not break up to the last moments. However, the concentrated efforts of the Kent Place guards prevented the Kimberley forwards from making more than two baskets in the last half of the game.

The scoring in the second team game was started by a foul shot by Jane Rauscher. Our forwards scored consecutively throughout the game, the final score being 32-25. The second team forwards were Beejay Hodges, Jane Rauscher, Marguerite Meszar; guards, Jean Geary, Ann Moser, and Mary Morrison; substitutes, Judy Houck, Louise McCarthy, Ellen Smith, and Mary Nettleton.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Beejay Hodges was president of Student Government this year with Kate Burke vice-president first term, Sally Cooke, second term; Helen Crawford, secretary; Lyn Pyle, assistant secretary first term; second term, Phyllis Travis. Miss Dorothy Sampson and Miss Elizabeth Wilcox were faculty advisers.

Council stressed throughout the year the part which each student has in determining the actions and plans of the student government, and the place of honor and a sense of individual responsibility in the molding of character.

This year Beejay Hodges, Helen Crawford and Helen Muller were representatives of the Council at a forum at Hartridge School to compare the systems and problems of different student governments.

RUTH PHILIPS

With Ruth Philips as president, Ann Dunham as vice-president the first semester, Cornelia Cree the second semester, and Helen Blackham as secretary-treasurer, the club of forty-seven voices began preparations for a very active season.

The traditional Christmas program included, besides the familiar carols, a selection of lovely seldom-heard songs. The soloists for the performance were: Judy Houck, Cornelia Cree, Carol Manning, Pat Macdonald. Beejay Hodges and Betsy Shaffer sang a duet.

Two concerts were scheduled at Kent Place for the second semester; one with the Lawrenceville Glee Club on March first, and another with the Riverdale School Glee Club on April twenty-sixth.

The main feature of both concerts was a series of numbers by the Glee Clubs of each school. The Kent Place Triple Trio sang some Negro spirituals and folk songs. The members of the Triple Trio were Barbara Beckett, Carol Manning and Judy Houck—sopranos; Pat Tyner, Beejay Hodges and Cornelia Cree—second sopranos; and Jane Holt, Marguerite Meszar and Ruth Philips—altos. The Riverdale program was preceded by a tea-dance and dinner.

To make the year just about perfect the club had as director, Miss Ellen Richter; as pianist, Mrs. Ralph Plumley; and as rehearsal hall, the new music building.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

BARBARA BECKETT

The sixty-three members of International Relations Club chose as officers: Barbara Beckett, president; Mary Nettleton, vice-president; Nadja Burns, secretary; and Judy Metzger, treasurer. During the year representatives went to the Herald Tribune Conference on "Is Military Service a Bridge or a Gap?"; to the Public Service Conference on the theme "Education for Serving the Public"; to the European Aid Conference on the topic "Which will help Europe more—NATO or the Point Four Program?"; to the Buck Hill Conference on "Your Religion in a World of Conflict"; and to the Asia Conference at Dwight School at which each of the six schools attending discussed a different problem in Asia. The one for Kent Place was the economic situation. The club sponsored a drive for winter clothes for the Koreans. During the week about twenty cartons of clothes were collected. Barbara Beckett represented Kent Place on a televised discussion of some of the problems of Africa.

Maskers was under the leadership of Mary Ann Katrausky, first semester and Pat Macdonald, second semester; Mary Anne Winterer was secretary, Diane Yaguda treasurer. Under the direction of Miss Hope Corken, the club presented three plays.

The fall play at the Middle School Fair was The Burglar. In this play were Sally Cooke, Anne Bryan, Betsy Collins, Mary Ranson, and Mary Ann Smith.

The winter play, Little Women, an adaptation from the book by Louisa May Alcott, starred Jane Rauscher as "Jo." Her sisters were portrayed by Mary Nettleton, Mary Ann Winterer, and Ann Dunham; Betsy Hilyard played their mother. In the cast were Pat Macdonald as Aunt March, Susan Armstrong as Hannah, Kerry Boland as Susie Moffatt, and Nadja Burns as Aunt Caroll.

This spring play, given on the outdoor stage, was Twelfth Night this year.

JUNIOR DRAMATIC CLUB

Something new in the Upper School this year is the Junior Dramatic Club for forty members from the Freshman and Sophomore classes. The officers are Barbara Davison, president; Gay Hart, vice-president; Alice Wilson, secretary; and Lucia Hsia, treasurer. Their adviser is Mrs. Donald C. Erwin, who attended the John Murray Anderson - Robert Milton school of the theatre. She has done a few years of summer stock, been on several radio and television shows, and is associated with the Summit Playhouse.

During their meetings, they practiced reading excerpts from plays, acted out pantomimes, and discussed drama. Their program included plans for presenting one-act plays.

APRIL 1952

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of 1952, being of sound mind and body, do make, publish, and declare the following to be our last will and testament:

Section I

We bequeathe:

To Miss Wolfe, a class that are scholars as well as ladies.

To Mrs. DeBruyne, a patent for a typewriter that writes on the board.

To Mademoiselle Avizou, another class of "little innocents" to teach the facts of French.

To Mrs. Allcock, a radiator that works.

To Miss Wilcox, forty statements of why we want to go to college.

Section II

We leave Miss Hamilton to next year's hockey defense.

We leave Sarah Murphree a cat.

We leave, to the girls in the front row of Mademoiselle Avizou's class, football padding.

We leave our college widow parties.

Mary Ann Gotelli leaves her gold fish to Betsy Shaffer.

Helen Crawford leaves Doreen at last.

Helen Blackham leaves the junior boarders to face starvation.

Beejay Hodges leaves her ability to shoot baskets by radar to a nearsighted junior.

Pat Black leaves the hockey squad without a goalie for the first time in four years.

Jane Rauscher leaves her driving reputation to Ann Boyer.

Dana Matthaei and Laura Foster leave their frequent absences to Nadja Burns.

Joan Smith leaves her grace and composure to Kate Campbell.

Penny Bensley leaves twelve long years at Kent Place.

Jean Geary leaves her reputation as a hostess to the president of next year's senior class.

Baasil wonders with whom he shall leave.

Section III

We leave the freshmen three years to graduate.

We leave the sophomores, our sister class, our shining example.

We leave the juniors a year's supply of minus points.

We leave the whole school a week that starts on Tuesday.

We leave Miss Sampson as our sole executrix with power "to make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing" statements.

Finally, we leave with happy memories for we find we have no others.

AT LAST... What Every Woman Wants in Paint!

Got your heart set on a color you can't find? Come see our Murphy Color Cabinet and Color Harmony Books — take your pick of the loveliest paint colors you ever saw. Not only will you find the color you want, but you can have it in any finish!

Isn't COLOR your Biggest Decorating Problem?

At Last—Custom Colors without the Custom Cost

Murphy Paints are actually tinted to your order just before using. You enjoy "custom colors" at the cost of ordinary paints!

We wish to thank the merchants who have, by their advertising, helped to make it possible for us to publish this issue of CARGOES.

In return it is hoped that the students and friends of Kent Place will patronize those who have taken space in our yearbook.
